SCHEDULE OF EVENTS - 2012

The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon; planted in the house of the LORD, they will flourish in the courts of our God. They will still bear fruit in old age, they will stay fresh and green, proclaiming, "The LORD is upright; he is my Rock, and there is no wickedness in him." Psalm 92:12-15

March 13

"Partnering with God on the Aging Journey." How does our experience of God change as we face the realities of getting older? Marcus Smucker has been sharing with older and younger people about how to stay open to God in the midst of the aging process. Marcus grew up in Bird-in-Hand, was a pastor in Oregon, got his doctoral degree in religion and psychological studies, and has taught in a number of seminaries, most recently Eastern Mennonite Seminary, Lancaster campus. He will draw from life experience and his studies as he addresses this topic.
together.

April 10

May 8

Silver Chords, a men's group of five from the Lancaster area, will lead us in worship. They will sing old-time, beloved, gospel, quartet-style songs that will include many of your favorites.

June 12

Vernon and Donna Stoltzfus family from Honey Brook will be sharing in worship, song and Bible study.

July 10

After 35 years of pastoring churches in Pennsylvania and Virginia, Wes and Lois Boyer spent time as host and hostess of the Mennonite Guest House in Nairobi, Kenya. They also taught some seminars and had some interesting experiences interacting with the churches there. .

August 14

Meet at the church at 10 a.m. and then we will travel to The Factory, a youth ministry center in Paradise. The ministry director, Chuck Holt, will give us a tour of the facility and explain the vision and purpose of this exciting youth outreach. Lunch will be provided at the facility.

September

On the 11th of September, Smucker, and I will be in the hospital for a total ministry. At that time, I will have an experience in connection with the victims of the 9/11 & Irene hurricanes. Spot Village, October 1st. Our annual meeting with Paul and M. hosts. Come together!
