THE "STRANGER" IN OUR MIDST: MCC Immigration Community Day
Join Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) and local churches
from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday August 4, at Centro de Alabanza Church, 440 Snyder Avenue, Philadelphia, for a celebration of immigrants in our community. Hear from a panel of speakers on how immigrants can protect themselves and each other in the current political climate. Learn about the role of the church in assisting immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

COME TO A REGIONAL HYMN SING at 6 p.m. Sunday, August 19 at Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.

Join Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) and local churches
from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday August 4, at Centro de Alabanza Church, 440 Snyder Avenue, Philadelphia, for a celebration of immigrants in our community. Hear from a panel of speakers on how immigrants can protect themselves and each other in the current
political climate. Learn about the role of the church in assisting
immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia
community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and
activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family
and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

COME TO A REGIONAL HYMN SING at 6 p.m. Sunday, August 19 at Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your
heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.

Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your
heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.

Join Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) and local churches
from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday August 4, at Centro de Alabanza Church, 440 Snyder Avenue, Philadelphia, for a celebration of immigrants in our community. Hear from a panel of speakers on how immigrants can protect themselves and each other in the current
political climate. Learn about the role of the church in assisting
immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia
community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and
activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family
and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy
performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia
community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and
activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family
and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

COME TO A REGIONAL HYMN SING at 6 p.m. Sunday, August 19 at Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your
heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.

Join Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) and local churches
from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday August 4, at Centro de Alabanza Church, 440 Snyder Avenue, Philadelphia, for a celebration of immigrants in our community. Hear from a panel of speakers on how immigrants can protect themselves and each other in the current
political climate. Learn about the role of the church in assisting
immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy
performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia
community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and
activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family
and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your
heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.

Join Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) and local churches
from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday August 4, at Centro de Alabanza Church, 440 Snyder Avenue, Philadelphia, for a celebration of immigrants in our community. Hear from a panel of speakers on how immigrants can protect themselves and each other in the current
political climate. Learn about the role of the church in assisting
immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy
performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia
community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and
activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family
and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your
heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.

Join Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) and local churches
from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday August 4, at Centro de Alabanza Church, 440 Snyder Avenue, Philadelphia, for a celebration of immigrants in our community. Hear from a panel of speakers on how immigrants can protect themselves and each other in the current
political climate. Learn about the role of the church in assisting
immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy
performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia
community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and
activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family
and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your
heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.

Join Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) and local churches
from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday August 4, at Centro de Alabanza Church, 440 Snyder Avenue, Philadelphia, for a celebration of immigrants in our community. Hear from a panel of speakers on how
immigrants can protect themselves and each other in the current
political climate. Learn about the role of the church in assisting
immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy
performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia
community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and
activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family
and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your
heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.

Join Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) and local churches
from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday August 4, at Centro de Alabanza Church, 440 Snyder Avenue, Philadelphia, for a celebration of immigrants in our community. Hear from a panel of speakers on how
immigrants can protect themselves and each other in the current
political climate. Learn about the role of the church in assisting
immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy
performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia
community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and
activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family
and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your
heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.

Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your
heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.

from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday August 4, at Centro de Alabanza Church, 440 Snyder Avenue, Philadelphia, for a celebration of immigrants in our community. Hear from a panel of speakers on how
immigrants can protect themselves and each other in the current
political climate. Learn about the role of the church in assisting
immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy
performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia
community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and
activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family
and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

immigrants and healing our communities. Sample ethnic food and enjoy
performances from various cultural artists in the Philadelphia
community. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted to cover event costs. For more information and to RSVP before July 25, visit mcc.org/community-day or call (215) 535-3624.

THANK YOU to all who engaged in prayers, conversations and
activities during the candidating process with Robert and Audrey Kanagy. The result from the affirmation ballot was an 89.5% positive response to calling them for ministry at Ridgeview. The Kanagys have accepted the position. Continue to be in prayer for the Kanagy family
and Ridgeview as we move forward on this new journey together.

Community Mennonite Church of Lancaster, for a glimpse into the work of the Mennonite Worship and Song Committee. The new hymnal, Voices Together, is scheduled for release in 2020. Benjamin Bergey, music editor for the new hymnal, will lead the singing of your
heart songs, as well as introduce new music being considered for the collection. After the hymn sing Benjamin and Steve Carpenter, representing MennoMedia, will be available to answer questions.
