ANNOUNCEMENTS

AS A CHRISTMAS GIVING OPPORTUNITY, Ridgeview is asking for participation in gathering funds for the Factory's Christmas Gift Program. This is to provide under-resourced parents in our area with Christmas gifts for their children. Each parent/guardian registers their children for a clothing item ($25) and a fun item ($25). We have committed to providing these gifts for 10 children. ($500) The Factory will provide us with the gift tags, stating the size and desires of the child. We will take donations for this program through November. Our youth group will then take the tags and go shopping to buy the items suggested.

If you wish to help with this (a replacement for our usual ingathering), please send your contribution to the church earmarked for the Factory Christmas Gift Program. If possible, please contribute in increments of $25.

THE WINTER SUNDAY SCHOOL CURRICULUM is here. Adult Sunday school books will be placed in the drop box and on the literature rack for you to pick up.

NELSON YODER has accepted the role of pastor at Pilgrims Mennonite Church in Akron. They are a congregation of Atlantic Coast Conference located in Akron. Blessings to Nelson and Pat in this new season of work and calling.

IN NAVIGATING THE CHALLENGES of a new full-time job, Bethany Jacke has asked to step back from the role of Lay Minister of Christian Formation. Because of the challenges of the pandemic, the pastors and TCRC feel that it would be prudent to wait to fill this role at this time. The Ministry Team will step in as Lay Minister for larger concerns, and Debbie Denlinger will be working with children's Sunday School. The Adult Sunday Schools classes have continued through Zoom, the Youth are being led by Dan Dietzel and Valerie Kauffman, and the Jr High have individual mentors with Audrey Kanagy serving as their connection with CHORD – combined youth and Jr high along with Meadville Mennonite Church.
