Call to Worship

Dear God, today we gather together and call out to you Our Father, who art in Heaven
We lift you up and praise you for who you are to us
Hallowed be your name
We seek to learn your ways, your kingdom ways, so that we can faithfully live our lives today and every day
Your kingdom come, your will be done We come together admitting that we have at times done things that hurt you and that hurt others and for that we are truly sorry Forgive us, as we forgive others
Here in this place and as your body at Ridgeview
We pray that you will give us this day our daily bread and that you will lead us away from temptation and that which is evil.
We thank you for your invitation today
To pray, to worship and to learn.
May it be so, Amen. (Adapted Decker, WP)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELLNESS SURVEY....Following best practice there will be a review of the congregation, individual participants and Audrey and Robert Kanagy, our pastors. Paper surveys will be in mailboxes after church today for persons who do not receive electronic announcements.
Surveys will be sent electronically on Tuesday. In addition copies of the survey are available on the literature rack. Surveys are due by Sunday February 2. All congregational participants are encouraged to be part of this important review. Thank-you in advance for your part in this important practice to strengthen our life together.

YOUR PIES ARE NEEDED FOR our fellowship meal on Sunday, February 2. Contact Elton Horst and tell him how many you will bring.

THE PATTERN OF THE LORD'S PRAYER: Sometimes a visual pattern for prayer is helpful in focusing and listening to what God is communicating to us. The following website may help you visualize the Lord's Prayer in a new way.
