ANNOUNCEMENTS

IT HAS BEEN A YEAR since my cancer diagnosis, or as I refer to it my Massive Inconvenience. My last treatment was November 16th and as of now I am cancer free. Because of the pandemic and then my self-imposed quarantine during chemo treatment I was not able to attend church for over two years. Even in my absence your love and support were shown to Walt and me by your offers of rides to treatment, to get groceries, your prayers, visits, cards, phone calls, texts, emails, food, flowers and balloons. Your encouragement would oft time come when most needed and gave me strength. We will be forever grateful to belong to such a caring community.

LADIES...YOUNG & OLD, please join us for "A Longwood Christmas" on Tuesday, November 29. We are planning to leave Dutch-Way Market at 5:30 p.m. If you would like to join us for dinner before leaving, plan to be at the Dutch-Way Restaurant by 4:15 p.m. We will need drivers from Dutch-Way to Longwood Gardens. We have limited free admission tickets available. If you have a membership to Longwood and would be joining the Longwood group, would you consider reserving as many reservations as your membership will allow so more can enjoy the evening. Please contact Marsha with any questions and/or to reserve your spot.

IF YOU HAVE A CREDIT CARD thru Everence and have not signed up for their “My Neighbor” program please consider designating Ridgeview Church as your non-profit choice before the end of December.
