Call to Worship

Many: Lord, we gather —

One: as infants in our parents' arms, as children with our snacks and crayons, as youth whispering with our friends —
we're just learning what it means to worship.

Many: Lord, we gather —

One: as young adults trying to find our place within the church, as parents caring for our children,
as mid-life people with mid-life questions, as older adults wondering why the questions haven't stopped —
we're just learning what it means to worship.

Many: Lord, we gather —

One: as people with lives too busy or not busy enough, bursting with energy or already looking forward to that afternoon
nap,
content, discontent, or somewhere in between —
we're just learning what it means to worship.
We come before you today with our unique personalities and experiences, ready and not yet ready for this time together.

Many: Draw us by your Spirit into your embrace.

Turn our thoughts and voices to thankfulness and praise. Amen.
