RISING from the Ashes
Pentecost 2023

This Pentecost Sunday, we are invited to get swept up and carried away on the wings of the Holy Spirit – that presents itself in the most unusual ways and places. Can we see the possibility of new life in the ashes of what once was? Can we hear the beckoning of the Holy Spirit, calling us to kindle new life in unexpected ways?

Call to Worship

L: God of wind and wings, gather us in this space.

P: Light up our hearts for you.

L: God of flames and fire, emblaze us with your passion.

P: May your presence burn within us.

L: God of rest and resurrection, raise us from the ashes.

P: May we live as people born anew, seeking life where there was once death.

Message: "Enough!"

Dawn Ranck Hower

Dawn completed 20 years of ministry in March (nine at New Holland Mennonite and previously 11 years at Plains Mennonite Church, in Lansdale, PA.) She grew up on a pig farm in Southern Lancaster County. Dawn loves people and is intrigued by their stories and life experiences. Dawn is comfortable exploring a city, traveling in another country, or helping out on the family farm. Dawn, and her husband Bryan (a teacher at McCaskey High School), are active in the New Holland Community. Dawn enjoys traveling, crocheting, working in her flower beds, playing games, and hanging out with their cats and dog.
