SCHEDULE OF EVENTS – 2018

The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon; planted in the house of the LORD, they will flourish in the courts of our God. They will still bear fruit in old age, they will stay fresh and green, proclaiming, "The LORD is upright; he is my Rock, and there is no wickedness in him." Psalm 92:12-15

Lunch served after each meeting

March 13

Chuck Holt, Director of The Factory Ministries, will share his life story and how that led to the work of The Factory. The Factory Ministries exists to empower and mobilize communities to create health and sustainability specifically for the under-resourced.

April 10

Lancaster Mennonite School Gals Can Sing! The Radiettes—Sydney Esch, Kate Kindleberger, Bethany Bronkema, and Mica Nieves, have been singing and playing different instruments since their sophomore year. They enjoy singing and playing folk, indie, and worship music. John Denlinger, Director of Church relations at Lancaster Mennonite School, will also share bits n pieces about LMS.

May 8

Henry Benner, local historian, will share fascinating stories of native American and European settlers in the Lancaster County area.

June 12

Pack your bags for a cruise on the Rhine River with Don and Doris Neff. As we cruise from Amsterdam to Basel, we'll see windmills, castles, quaint villages, vineyards, awe-inspiring cathedrals and more. After the cruise, we'll go along with them as they explore their Neff and Hershey roots in Switzerland and Germany.

July 10

David and Grace Shenk have served under EMM (overseas and in the US) for many years. They will share information with us about conflicts between Christians and Muslims around the world. They'll tell stories of how God's love reaches all people groups of the world by building bridges of love and respect for each other.

August 14

Connie Metzler works at Lancaster General Health Penn Medicine in memory care. She will be sharing on the topic of "Maintaining Our Brains." What can be done to help prevent normal cognitive decline as we age? How can we keep our brains functioning at their highest capacity?

September 11

Be ready for some good pickin' and singing by the Blossom Hill String Band—Jim Baer, Brad Fair, Lynn Longenecker, Steve Ness, and Nate Tyson. They'll sing some old time gospel favorites and fun/folk songs, play instruments, and at times will ask us to sing along with them.

October 9

A day trip with Paul & Marie Kurtz is planned. More information will be available later.

November 13

"The Autumn of Life," Ginny Hartman, a retired nurse and chaplain, now living at Landis Homes. She will share how the autumn of our lives can strengthen our ability to see and feel God's love.

December 11

Scott and Jolene Morrison Family. A family of 16 who loves the Lord and share God's love through service and song. The children were all home-schooled and are very gifted.
